With things opening up from the Covid issue, here is a thought-provoking article we need to look at. Our youth need to become once again a major priority. Read (and perhaps weep).

Who Will Teach?

There was once a church staff looking for teachers for children—preschoolers and youth. And some adults said, “I don’t want to leave the good fellowship and study in my adult class.” But the drug pusher on the street said, “Not even the threat of jail will keep me from working with your children.”

And some adults said, “I don’t have the time.” But the pusher, the porno book dealer, and movie producer said, “We’ll stay open whatever hours are necessary every day to win the minds of the kids.”

Some adults said, “I’m unsuited, untrained, and unable to work with children.” But the movie producer said, “We’ll survey, study and spend millions to produce whatever turns kids on.”

So the adults stayed in their classes, enjoyed the fellowship, absorbed the good Bible study, and weren’t tied down on the weekends. And when Sunday came, no one was there to teach the children. They were assured that someone would surely come to teach them some Sunday soon. But no one ever came, and the young children soon quit coming because they had gone to listen to others who cared about what they did and about what went into their minds.

FRUIT LADYBUGS

Get creative in the kitchen with this sweet springtime snack.

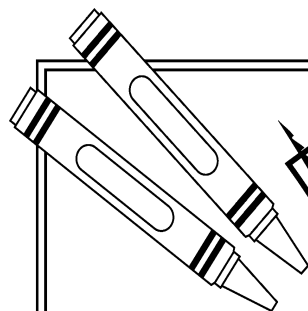

What you need:

- Strawberries (washed)
- Knife
- Plate or wax paper
- ½ cup melted chocolate chips
- Zippered baggie
- Scissors
- Blueberries (washed)
- Adult help

What you do:

1. De-stem the strawberries. Cut in half and then cut a small V atop each half to make the ladybug body. Set them on a plate or wax paper.
2. Place the melted chocolate in a baggie and cut off the tip of a bottom corner.
3. Pipe a dividing line and "spots" on each strawberry. Also use the chocolate to attach a blueberry "head" by the V shape.
4. Pipe chocolate antennas and legs onto ladybugs.
5. Let harden. Enjoy!
