From The Minister

Very few people in today's world are willing to die for their country. I applaud the Ukrainian President and people of Ukraine for their stand against a brutal attack on their country and people. I respect this kind of commitment to the right cause - - it reminds me of the apostles and their desire to stand firm for Christ when threatened with death. There are some things worth dying for.

I also like what happened in East Africa recently. People came forward to be baptized by being immersed in a river as a symbol of their new life in Christ. All the participants came forward with joy, but one young man really broke up the service when he came out of the water after his baptism shouting, "I'm Alive! I'm Alive! I'm Alive!"

The missionary asked the boy what he was doing. The boy said he thought he was supposed to die in the waters. Hadn't the missionary said he would be "buried with Christ in the waters of baptism"? Yes, that was a part of the liturgical reading for the service.

But the boy had taken it literally. The attendees at the service began to laugh, until the missionary said, "That child thought that baptism would kill him, and yet he was willing to go through the process." Then he asked, "Would you have done the same?"

That's a profound question: Would we have done the same? Thank God for the people who are willing to die for what they believe and what is right. Are you one of them?

FRUIT LADYBUGS

Get creative in the kitchen with this sweet springtime snack.

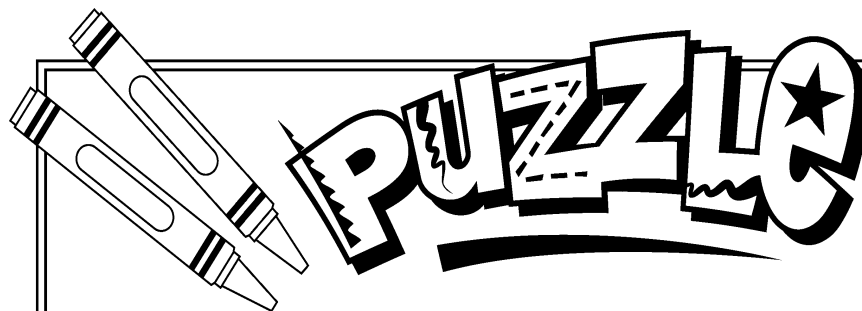

What you need:

- Strawberries (washed)
- Knife
- Plate or wax paper
- ½ cup melted chocolate chips
- Zippered baggie
- Scissors
- Blueberries (washed)
- Adult help

What you do:

1. De-stem the strawberries. Cut in half and then cut a small V atop each half to make the ladybug body. Set them on a plate or wax paper.
2. Place the melted chocolate in a baggie and cut off the tip of a bottom corner.
3. Pipe a dividing line and "spots" on each strawberry. Also use the chocolate to attach a blueberry "head" by the V shape.
4. Pipe chocolate antennas and legs onto ladybugs.
5. Let harden. Enjoy!
