From The Minister

Let me give you some thoughts on growing old, as some of us are now looking forward to another brand new life in Heaven.

1st thought – David says in Psalm 37:25: “I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.”

2nd thought – One old Chinese Grandpa, too feeble to work, was considered by the family, an unwanted burden-- just another mouth to consume the meager supply of rice. Therefore the father of the home decided to put the old man on a wheelbarrow and take him up to the mountain to die. The little eight year old grandson went along full of curiosity and questions. The father explained that the grandfather was old and helpless, and that there was nothing else to be done with him. Then the little chap had a happy thought; “I’m glad I came along Daddy,” said the youngster, “because when you get old I’ll know where to take you!” The daddy stopped dead in his tracks, thought better of the whole situation, and brought the old gentleman back home.

3rd thought – an elderly friend remarked on the passing of time. “You know, it’s terrible to grow old alone.” “But you’re not alone. You’ve got a wife” “Are you kidding?” he said, “My wife hasn’t had a birthday in years.”

4th thought – an announcer for a local radio station was interviewing a man on his 99th birthday. As the announcer was leaving he said, “I hope that I can come out and interview you again next year on your 100th birthday.” The old man cocked his head, studied the announcer and said, “I don’t see why you can’t, you look healthy enough to me.”

May God bless our senior citizens!

Brother Eldon
